Leaving Certificate

The examination papers for November Leaving Certificate examinations*, which commenced on Monday 16th November and will run until the 11th December, will be published on the SEC's website to a weekly schedule each Monday on which the papers up to the previous Friday will be published.

This publication schedule is considered appropriate due to the low numbers of candidates entered to take these examinations; the timetable which sees papers being taken on evenings and weekends with the possibility of delayed sittings depending on candidates' individual circumstances; and the possibility that not all of the examination papers that have been prepared will be taken by candidates (in which case the papers will not be published at all).

The arrangements which typically apply, of publishing examination papers in the morning and afternoon on days on which examinations are held, will resume for futures years.
